SATURDAY APRIL 3.

If Garland would strike and not resume work, Mr. Cleveland would have a fine opportunity to shake hands with himself.

There is some hope for New York when its aldermen find their way to jail. That is the place New York aldermen belong.

One year of a democratic administration has made this fact as plain as day, that "the president has no faith in his party and the party has no faith in the president."

Logan and Teller had a little war of words in the senate the other day. When Logan got through, Teller, for the first time since he has been in Washington, realized the fact that he himself didn't amount to very much.

In the current issue of the Century, George M Powell writes on the labor question and makes this declaration; "Capital and labor are each as necessary to other, as the two wings of a bird; cripple either wing and the other is useless." This is the whole argument in a nutshell, and both sides should understand it.

The latest in regard to the passenger rate war westward, is that the Union Pacific has withdrawn its $38 round trip rate from Council Bluffs to San Francisco but continues to accept the $50 rate. The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe people still accept the $31 round trip rate from the Missouri to the Golden state But heavy rebates are granted on limited tickets, so that a passenger may go over the Union Pacific, for instance, from the Missouri river to San Francisco, for $5 net, with a guarantee that if he returns before the first of May he can purchase a return ticket on the same terms. Attempts were renewed yesterday in New York city, at a meeting of the presidents of the Pacific roads, to restore rates to a permanent $50 net basis but no agreement could be made. Passenger rates between Chicago and New York have been somewhat demoralized of late, but Thursday the several managers agreed to restore the $20 rate.

The North American Review for April is a splendid number of that valuable publication. Among the articles are one one on "Sherman and McPherson," by General Grant. Mrs. Ella Carroll, writes on the "Plan of the Tennessee Campaign"—a very interesting political sketch. Governor Martin contributes a valuable article on the progress of Kansas. Senator J. J. Ingalls of Kansas writes a timely article on "National Aid to Common Schools," which is a strong argument against the bill now before congress to squander $79,000,000 in that direction. One of the most interesting contributions to the Review, is the history of a famous dispatch, originally written by William H. Seward, but corrected by Abraham Lincoln. A fac-simile of the original draft is given with the corrections by Lincoln. The article shows that Mr. Lincoln knew more about diplomacy in three months after he entered the white house than he learned secretary of state.

The State Journal, in noticing the promotion of Colonel Thomas A. Ruger says: "He is a graduate of West Point, and was for many years a resident of Janesville, where a brother now resides. In May, 1861, he was tendered the appointment of lieutenant-colonel of the Third Wisconsin infantry, of which General Charles S. Hamilton, of Milwaukee, was then colonel. In the fall of the same year General Hamilton was made brigadier of volunteers, and Ruger was commissioned colonel of the Third. Late in 1862 or early in 1863 Ruger was made brigadier general of the brigade, and afterward of the division, and by the end of the war was a brevet major general. He commanded the division for a long time in the Atlanta campaign. After the war he was transferred to the regular army a major. He ranked ahead of most of the colonels in a long list, has a good record, was a brave fighter, and has well earned his promotion. He has been stationed for some time past at Fort Leavenworth, Kans., at the head of the military preparatory school. He is not yet 50 years of age." The journal is in error in regard to his age, as the colonel is 53, having been born, so the books say, in 1833.

Henry T. Wright, formerly assistant Postmaster at Racine, was convicted two years ago of embezzlement—the amount being $5,000—and was sentenced to the Chester, Illinois, penitentiary for five years. The supreme court of the United States held in the Mackin case the other day that though a man might be guilty of an "infamous crime," the proceeding against him must be by indictment and not by information. In Wright's case as in the Mackin case, the proceedings were by information. Mr. Weissert, a sharp lawyer, who has an eye to business remembered the trial and conviction of Wright, and the first move he made was to get him out of prison on a writ of habeas corpus, in which he succeeded. He was then taken before Judge Gresham, of Chicago, and the decision of the supreme court called to His Honor's attention. The result was that in one hour thereafter, Wright was a free man, and immediately started for his home at Racine. These cases are forcible reminders that United States attorneys should understand their business before they attempt to try a man charged with an infamous crime. Either by stupidity or ignorance, Mackin will escape being punished for tampering with the ballots.

I have had a very large trade on Athloptoros, and as a rule it has given the best of satisfaction in cases of rheumatism and neuralgia. O. E. Given, druggist, Stuart, Iowa. Only a fair trial is needed to show that it does what is claimed.

SUNLIGHT ON THE CIVIL SERVICE REFORM OF THE ADMINISTRATION.

One of the most damaging speeches that has been delivered in the senate on the civil service reform of the administration, was that made by Senator Harrison, of Indiana, last week, when he devoted one hour to discussing the relation between the senate and executive departments. It was not a pronounced, partisan speech, with reckless flings at the president, neither was it intended to do the administration injustice. It simply contained fair examples of what the president has been doing in the direction of civil service reform. When the editor of the New York Herald read that speech, he published in the most conspicuous place in the editorial columns of that democratic journal, the following sentence: "We have just been reading this speech, and if there are many more such facts as Mr. Harrison brought out, we incline to agree with our Washington correspondent, who advises the civil-service reformers to put crape on their hats and endeavor to reconcile themselves to the death of their policy."

The readers of the Gazette will remember that Mr. Cleveland in his strange message to the senate a few weeks ago, said he had faithfully kept all the promises he had made in regard to civil service reform. It was to this particular part of the message that Senator Harrison made answer, and in doing so brought to light some facts which will in part explain why Mr. Cleveland so suddenly "pulled down his curtains" when the people wanted to know about what was going on within. The speech shows how utterly characterless the president's policy is which stimulates and invites charges against the character of men and women and hide those charges from the light of day.

In exposing the hypocrisy of the president, and showing how little worth are the loud professions of the administration on civil service reform and of a fixed determination to keep democratic officeholders out of politics, Mr. Harrison gave this case: "There was held the other day, in the city of Fort Wayne, in the Twelfth congressional district of Indiana, a meeting of the democratic congressional committee. Let us show you who was on it: C. A. Zollinger, of Indianapolis, the the postoffice agent, was chairman of the committee: William Keough, postmaster at Fort Wayne, met with the committee as a member; Eli W. Brown postmaster at Columbia City, met with the committee as a member, and Herman Freygang, postmaster at Angola, also met with this democratic committee as a member."

Then there was another case down in Indiana. A Union soldier had filled the position of mail clerk for many years. He was exceeding efficient and of solid integrity. He was a good gunner, having had nearly four years' experience during the war. When General Logan was given a reception at Indianapolis in 1884, this mail clerk being off duty for a day, was asked to fire one of the salutes, which he did. When the democrats came into power, the mail clerk was fired out for firing the cannon, and a man named Dowling put in his place. Who was this man Dowling? He was a low politician of Indianapolis, and had been declared by the city council of Indianapolis to be guilty of bribery. And in other ways his character was bad. All these facts were laid before the postmaster general, but Dowling was retained because he was an efficient democratic worker.

Another case: One Bernard Conroy, of Indianapolis, made application for the position of transfer mail agent, and the endorsement on his papers read, "he is an earnest worker in the democratic cause, and is always at the polls early and late." This was signed by the governor of the state and several other state officers and signed in the face of the fact that this Bernard Conroy, who was "always at the polls early and late" was twice convicted of felony.

There is another case full of pathos and indignation. Mrs. Isabelle De la Hunt, was a widow, and was postmistress at Connelton, Indiana. Her husband, Major De la Hunt was shot down by the rebels at Prairie Grove, Arkansas. She was a splendid official and the little postoffice did much toward her support. When Colonel Vilas became postmaster general she was removed on false charges preferred against her. She was surprised, and asked the simple favor of being put in possession of the charges against her, but the postoffice department refused the woman walking in the loneliness of widowhood, that small comfort. Striking down her character was a cowardly act and a national disgrace, and made the postmaster general a party to the assassination of her character.

Such cases of these might be multiplied by the hundred, but those named are sufficient to show the general character of the administration as it relates to justice and reform. The Gazette is glad to say that the democratic party is not united in the support of this policy. Many democratic newspapers, democratic congressmen and democratic senators have, spoken against it, and have loudly cried for a halt, but still the disgrace goes on. The offices belong to the democrats, and as a matter of right, throwing aside all civil service consideration, they should have them, but not through any inquisitorial proceedings. Every honest man, democrat or republican, will agree to this statement, and "Mr. Cleveland ought to understand that the American people will bear with ignorance, with mistakes, with graver faults, even, in their public men; but they do not like hypocrisy."

"Whom the gods love die young," says Byron; but why die when you can cure the cold or cough, which neglected means death, with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the old reliable!

A sensible woman will not fail to keep a bottle of Salvation Oil on hand for men's cuts or bruises.

THE FLOODS OF SPRING.

GETTING HIGHER AND HIGHER WITH OMINOUS RAPIDITY.

CINCINNATI, April 3.—The river registered fifty-one feet six inches at 10 o'clock Friday night, and is rising at the rate of two inches an hour. It is rapidly approaching the danger line for all the railroads which enter the central station. The coal men are among the anxious ones, since nearly all are now so inconvenienced by the high water that nearly twice the ordinary labor is required to handle their commodity for delivery. There has been no great damage done as yet, but many cellars are flooded and merchants are moving their goods to safe places.

News from Point Pleasant at the mouth of the Kanawha river, says the Ohio river lacks but a few feet of being equal to the great flood two years ago. In the flooded district of the city many hundreds of people who lived in small houses are great sufferers, many having lost their possessions.

At Louisville the river has reached the danger line, and is still rising rapidly. The atmosphere is cloudy, and the rain will cause additional alarm. The streams throughout the state, particularly the Kentucky and Cumberland river, are very high, but so far railroad trouble has not been interfered with in Kentucky.

Dispatches from the submerged south are gloomy in the extreme. One from Chattanooga, Tenn., says: The gas works are inundated, and there is no gas. The water works are also under water. The supply in the reservoirs will be exhausted in twenty hours. The river is fifty-one feet and rising. The water at 9 o'clock reached Market and Eighth streets. Business is entirely suspended. Relief committees have been organized and goods are supplied to all the needy. The damage to the railroads is great. The water is two feet deep in the principal streets of Montgomery, Ala. At that point the ice factory, water works, soap works and gas works, electric-light works, fertilizer works, iron foundries, oil mills, railroad shops and freight depot of the Western & Central railroad, stock yards and brick yards, all have several feet of water in them. In most of them the damage will be confined to machinery. The only illumination in the city is by candles and oil. Viewed from the dome of the capitol, the highest point in the city, a lake of water lies to the north and west fully ten miles square. Nine persons have been drowned in northern Alabama during the deluge.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 3.—Specials to The Union indicate most terrible distress and loss of life in southern Alabama. Railroad traffic is completely blocked and no trains are running on the Louisville & Nashville road south of Birmingham. The Queen & Crescent road is washed out so as to stop travel between Meridian, Miss., and Chattanooga, Tenn.

The Georgia Pacific road is also badly washed. It will probably be ten days before trains are running.

The Alabama river has overflowed its banks and covers the country with a wild waste of water. Numbers of people have been rescued from the tree-tops, where they climbed to save their lives, and many more from rafts which are floating down the numerous streams. Thousands of carcasses of cattle are seen. The Tennessee river has overflowed and the bottoms are covered with water.

The destruction of the wheat crop in the Cumberland low lands will possibly amount to $500,000, necessitating a second plowing of the ground and the planting of corn or some other product. The flood is the greatest for years and if the rain continues the loss of property will be terrible.

RICHMOND, Va., April 3.—The freshet in the James river has been somewhat alarming, but no serious damage has resulted, though poor people have suffered. The flood is six feet lower than in 1877. The water is falling now and trains are running through on time. There is no gas in the city owing to the rise in the water.

The Weather Bureau's Warning.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 3, 12:30 a. m.—Special weather bulletin.—All parties having interests on the Mississippi river in the low-land districts, between Cairo and New Orleans, are warned to take the necessary action to protect themselves from loss, as the Mississippi river will rise decidedly, and probably overflow in the low districts. The Ohio river is about five feet above the danger line at Cincinnati. A rapid rise will occur between Cincinnati and Cairo, and will probably overflow in many places. Serious danger is apprehended in the vicinity of Cairo.

A Reporter Drowned.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 3.—E. C. Bruffey, of The Constitution was drowned in Tom's creek, between Kingston and Rome, Friday morning. He had gone as special reporter to write up the flood.

Pensions for Prisoners.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 3.—The house committee on invalid pensions Friday agreed to report favorably a bill to pension prisoners of war. It provides that all persons in the service of the United States during the late war who were prisoners of war for sixty days or more, and who are now suffering from disability as to the result, shall be entitled to pension at rates now provided for similar disabilities; also all persons who were confined more than sixty days shall be entitled to $2 per day for every day they were held in confinement, though suffering no permanent disability thereby.

Setting a Most Embarrassing Example.

HARTFORD, Conn., April 3.—The senate Friday passed the bill giving a pension of $100 a quarter to Mrs. Prudence Crandall Philleo, now of Kansas, who was mobbed in 1834 in the town of Canterbury for instructing negroes. Mr. S. L. Clemens (Mark Twain) offered to lease the farm where she formerly lived and give her the free use of her old home for her life, but she declined, preferring to remain in Kansas.

A Printer's Plum Take.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 3.—Indiana Democrats are setting in for a fight on Public Printer Rounds, in the hope of getting the place for John E. Stoll, of South Bend, Ind. They allege that Rounds runs the government printing office in political favoritism, and cite in support of the assertion the alleged fact that Mr. Gorman has obtained over 100 appointments in the office while no other Democrat got any.

Frozen Fresh Fish Excluded.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 3.—The committee on shipping has adopted a bill to exclude from the benefits of the tariff law, which admits free of duty fresh fish for immediate consumption, fish which are frozen.

Base Ballists Limbering Up.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 3.—Exhibition game: Metropolitans 5, Washingtons 4.

A HARD NUT TO CRACK.

BUT CONGRESS HAMMERS AWAY WITH RIGHT GOOD WILL.

A Chicago Statesman Whom Jay Gould Had Better Watch—The News from the Strike Sections.

St. Louis Still Waiting for Something to Turn Up—Kansas Militia in Line—Trouble Brewing at Fort Worth—Hoxie's Reports to Gould—The Field in General.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 3.—Friday was the third day of the debate on the arbitration bill in the house and it will require at least another day apparently to get through. O'Neill in his remarks referred to some of his brother representatives as "a class of men who would suggest nothing, who were mere obstructions and barnacles on a party, and who ought to have better sense." Phelps of New Jersey and Willis of Kentucky favored the bill, and Breckenridge of Kentucky opposed it.

He said the bill was a grave and probably dangerous mistake; the beginning of the new jurisprudence, the foundation of a new and indefinite and dangerous jurisdiction. It was the creation of a novel, uncertain and indefinite tribunal. It seemed to him that before congress took so grave a step, more consideration should be given to it. For one, he did not believe that there was any virtue in legislation, as a solution of the problem. He denied that this was a paternal government to be constantly interfering with the progress of civilization by putting its hand to that progress. Let it not make a dividing line between fellow citizens. In the name, therefore, of all laboring men, he protested against the bill. The problem was being solved day by day, and hour by hour. Let congress distribute the burdens of civilization equally between labor and capital. Let it make capital pay its share. Let taxation be reduced. "There are no party tactics in the bill," he said in conclusion. "They for whom you seek to legislate will turn to rend you when they take this bill up and find that in the future it will provide means by which strikes can be made punishable by arrest. For voluntary arbitration will give place to involuntary arbitration. Involuntary arbitration will give place to federal jurisdiction and federal jurisdiction will be held by capital. They will find out that it has been a snare and a sham—worse than a sham, because it has been a delusion and disaster. I want to put on record that I stood here for true labor, the manhood of labor, the dignity of labor, that only asks a fair living chance in the great battle of life."

McKinley of Ohio, ironically suggested that the eloquent words of the gentleman from Kentucky would be received by the laboring men of the country as a cure for all the evils which affected them. The platitudes which that gentleman had indulged in about the equality of man and the dignity of labor, and the general statement that the way to help labor was to reduce taxes, would be welcomed by the workingmen of the country as a panacea for their injuries. He believed in the principle of the bill. It conferred no rights or privileges touching arbitration which were not now enjoyed by common carriers and those engaged in their service. It left them where it found them as to the right of voluntary arbitration to settle their differences through a peaceful and orderly tribunal of their own selection.

Hewitt of New York, said that arbitration had of recent years been developed, as a means for the equitable distribution of the proceeds of labor, so as to reward every man according to his deserts. His objection to the bill was that it would arrest the healthy progress which had been going on. Trades union development in England had led up arbitration there. When in 1867 the British conspiracy laws were repealed and trades unions were recognized as legal organizations, the British employers recognizing the fact that workingmen were able to hold their own, reluctantly came to the remedy of arbitration. The beneficial results of arbitration had come from voluntary organization. The law of compulsory arbitration had been a dead letter on the statute books of England. Meanwhile arbitration had marched on until finally every trade in England had organized into a tribunal in which the committee of the masters met with the committee of the workmen. They came together on terms of perfect equality, they selected an umpire, and it was not considered beneath the dignity of the greatest statesmen in England to act as umpire. They discussed every phase of the condition of business, and no legislative body in the world could show greater sense, discretion and patience than was shown in these voluntary assemblages. The result of this thing to-day in England was the profit sharing system, which was the final solution of this great question, and if we allowed our workmen and employes to come together in the same spirit, profit-sharing—which had only begun in this country—would occupy the whole field of human industry, and after that no more malice between capital and labor would be heard of.

Lawler of Illinois, said that the opponents of this bill had three long months to prepare something upon the question, and had not done so. But now they insulted the intelligence of the well-meaning men on the committee on labor, who had given it their attention. Passing on to the consideration of the strike on the Missouri Pacific, he declared, that without wishing to become communistic in his utterances, he was free to say that if Jay Gould was hung to a lamp-post in New York, it would be a blessing to the community known as the United States. [Laughter.] The action of Jay Gould might cost hundreds and thousands of lives throughout the western states. The death of a man like this was nothing compared with what might occur if the difficulties were not settled in these states. There was not a sentimental basis in this matter. It was justice to the workman. There was no harm in this bill, and the discussion of it has had a healthy effect upon the country. It was an honest bill, and if there were anything wrong with it congress could repeal it any time.

Glover of Missouri would not be content with the fraud and deceit embodied in this bill. It was a constitutional abortion and had nothing whereon to stand. Referring to the epithet used by O'Neill of "constitutional cranks," he wished to say to that gentleman, who was known as a constitutional lawyer among base-ballists, and as a base-ballist among constitutional lawyers, that there was no foundation on which this bill could stand.

The debate for the day ended with Glover's remarks.

PRESENT BUT NOT TO BE FOUND.

The Knights Executive Board at St. Louis—A Waiting Situation.

ST. LOUIS, April 3.—The local strike situation presents little of interest. The strikers and their executive committee are awaiting the action of the general executive board. A thorough search fails to locate the board, although that they are in town is almost certain. They will not reveal their presence until they have reviewed the case, and nothing can be learned of their plans for the future.

The Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain are receiving what freight is offered without molestation and running out trains with no guards.

In East St. Louis, the full force of the strike is on and the deadlock remains unbroken, the refusal of the St. Louis Transfer company's drivers to work until the strike is settled effectually stops all freight transfer by teams across the ferries. The only hauling done from the east side is by private teams to and from the Wabash road under the protection of the United States marshals, and is mainly confined to the handling of coal, the supply of which is running so short in this city that the price for small lots is as high as 30 cents per bushel. Many manufactories are closing down, while everybody awaits the coming of the general executive board for relief.

Manager Hoxie sent a telegram to Jay Gould Friday stating that the worst of the strike was over; that he had plenty of men to run trains, and was taking on more men constantly and that traffic was impeded at but few points, the system having moved 3,000 loads Thursday, a large increase over Wednesday.

Conflict Possible at Ft. Worth.

FT. WORTH, Tex., April 3.—The strikers are still masters of the situation here. The Missouri Pacific has procured an injunction restraining all persons not employed from entering the yards. United States Marshal Cabell and deputies are here to help the company run trains. The strikers vow that no freight shall move till the old employes are taken back. The strikers are receiving ample means of support from farmer's alliances or they could not hold out. On the other hand, the citizens are anxious for traffic to begin again.

Militia at Parsons, Kansas.

PARSONS, Kan., April 3.—Two companies of militia from Topeka have arrived here to guard against further riotous demonstrations by the strikers. A sheriff's posse of forty men has been summoned from Oswego, the county seat, to aid in guarding Missouri Pacific property. No men are at work in the shops, being intimidated by the strikers.

Master Workman Powderly Very Ill.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 3.—The condition of Mr. Powderly is so critical that his physician denies admission to reporters, the doors being closed to all except a few of his most intimate friends.

Along the Lines.

Freight trains are moving at Kansas City without opposition. A switch was thrown just before a passenger train in the Cypress yards with the evident intention of wrecking the train, which would have probably sacrificed a number of lives. The engineer managed to put on sufficient brake power to prevent a horror. The strikers disclaim the outrage.

THE FIGHT FOR WAGES.

A Dispute Settled at Cincinnati—Terms of Settlement.

CINCINNATI, April 3.—The shoe manufacturers and the members of the local assemblies of the Knights of Labor engaged in the shoe trade here have signed an agreement for the year 1886. The agreement provides for a board of arbitration to settle all matters that may arise in the trade except bills of wages and the regulation of apprentices, on which a board composed of three manufacturers and three members of the branch of the trade interested shall pass.

Objectionable bosses must go.

No boys under 15, or girls under 14, shall be employed.

No one shall be discharged because he is a Knight of Labor, or if he is, he must be reinstated.

All grievances must be stated in writing.

There shall be no strike or lock-out pending the settlement of grievances.

All bills of wages shall take effect May 1, and continue in force one year.

A day's work shall not exceed ten hours.

A Budget of Boycotts.

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—All the cigar factories at Terre Hill have closed, throwing 500 men out of work. The cigars from these factories were boycotted because made by non-union men.

At Reading, all persons furnishing material to the Reading Electric Light company and all merchants using its light have been boycotted by the Bricklayers' union, because the company employs non-union men.

At Wilmington, Del., all the morocco factories except Mullen's are still closed. The strikers are generally well behaved. The executive board, Knights of Labor, has ordered Knights on pain of expulsion, to refrain from disturbance.

The boycott against The Morning News of Wilmington, Del., is disapproved by citizens generally. Several merchants have offered to pay for all space vacated on account of the boycott, and to insert therein the name of the retiring advertiser and his reason for withdrawing.

An Improving Situation.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Bradstreet's report that the industrial situation is better in spite of the prolongation of the fight against the railways by the Knights of Labor at the west. The knitting-mill strike at Cohoes and New Britain, the boot and shoe strike at Beverly, Mass., and that among the suit makers at New York have largely disappeared, putting 19,000 operatives at work and cutting down the total striking from 52,000 to 33,000 within a week.

Watching a Lieutenant Governor.

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 3.—The members of the senate Friday morning, through Senator Casey, presented Lieutenant Governor Hill with a valuable gold watch and chain and an address expressive of their good will. Mr. Hill replying appropriately. A joint convention was then held for the purpose of balloting for the location of the soldiers' home. Twenty-four ineffectual ballots were taken, Hampton only lacking seven votes on one of them, and McGregor once getting 58 votes. The leading towns, however, were Burlington, Colfax and Marshalltown. The house passed the bill prohibiting non-resident aliens from acquiring real estate in Iowa, and also for the purchase of any real estate now held by said aliens.

Republican Senatorial Caucus.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 3.—The caucus of Republican senators Friday lasted for three hours, the policy to be pursued on nominations of internal revenue collectors being considered. No conclusion was reached and no formal vote was taken. It was incidentally shown that a majority of the Republican senators favor open executive sessions.

Swiss Free-and-Easy Prisons.

John Howard, the prison angel, himself could not have wished to exceed the tolerance of Swiss jail officials. The Freie Presse of Feb. 6 mentions that the manager of the Fribourg penitentiary runs a flourishing "beer-shop with board partitions," where convicts are permitted to invest their overtime earnings. A convict murderer received fourteen days' leave of absence to visit his sick sister at Lausanne, but overstaid his furlough and "had to be fetched back and fined." But the same man has now again received permission to visit Lausanne in the interest of his own health. —Dr. Oswald in Chicago Times.

The Ingredients of the Tamalla.

The tamalla is about six inches long, with its interior made of chopped parboiled meat, seasoned with a Mexican herb called chille, then rolled in corn-meal and covered with a cornshuck like a cigar, and boiled for two and a half hours. It is now sold largely in Kansas City, and is conducive to beer drinking.—Chicago Tribune.

The Splendor of Dress

and the artificial effects of cosmetics, no matter how deftly applied, can never make beautiful or attractive one who is subject to emaciation, nervous debility, or any form of female weakness. These must be reached by inward application, and not by outward attempts at concealment, and the ladies may take hope from the fact that thousands of their sisters have made themselves more radiant and beautiful by the use of Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" than they could ever hope to do by the aid of the appliances of the toilet.

The best on earth can be truly said of Griggs' Glycerine salve, which is a sure safe and speedy cure for cuts, bruises, scalds, burns, wounds and all other sores. Will positively cure piles, tetter, and all skin eruptions. Try this wonderful healer. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. 25 cents. Druggists.

Time tried and true is Dr. Bigelow's Positive Cure, which combines the good qualities of all the best cough remedies without the defects of any of them. It cures promptly and permanently coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, influenza, bronchitis, hoarseness, incipient consumption, and all throat and lung diseases, healing the lungs. Safe and pleasant for children. Price 50 cents and $1.

The reason why Acker's Blood Elixir is warranted, is because it is the best Blood Preparation known. It will positively cure all Blood Diseases, purifies the whole system, and thoroughly builds up the constitution. Remember, we guarantee it. Prentice & Evenson, druggists, O. P. C.

GOT THE STOCK FOR NOTHING,

And Had No Apology to Make—Atkins Testifies, and Denounces Pulitzer.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 3.—Indian Commissioner Atkins testified before the Pan-Electric committee Friday. He said he held one-tenth of the $5,000,000 of stock in the company and had paid nothing, nor would he have paid anything for it. It was given to him while a member of congress, but he thought there was no impropriety in a public officer entering into a private enterprise. He was asked if he ever had anything to do with securing official action on behalf of his company, and answered:

"Nothing on God Almighty's earth, and before I would do so, I would cut my hand off at the wrist. No man can look me in the face and say I have ever used my official influence for the company or intended to do so."

Witness said he knew nothing of the bringing of the suit until he saw by the newspapers that it was under consideration by the department.

When his examination had closed, Gen. Atkins produced a copy of The New York World, containing one of his letters to Dr. Rogers and an editorial on the subjects. He was very angry, and after reading the letter exclaimed: "The man who sent out that dispatch is either a fool or a liar."

Then as he read the editorial, which he said contained a foul aspersion upon him, to the effect that he had bargained away his influence as chairman of the house committee on appropriations, he again burst out with the declaration: "That is a slander and a lie, and I place the brand on the brow of Joseph Pulitzer, who said he was responsible for this."

Tammany Turning the Rascals Out.

NEW YORK, April 3.—At the Tammany hall committee on organization Friday night, ex-Alderman Kirk, who was arrested Thursday for bribery in connection with the Broadway railroad franchise, asked permission to withdrawn from membership until he shall have proven his innocence of the charges against him. The request was granted and he left the room amid applause. The resignations of Aldermen Charles Dempsey and L. A. Fallgraff, and ex-Clerk Billy Moloney of the board of aldermen, were tendered and accepted.

Must Muzzle the Greek.

LONDON, April 3.—Sir Horace Rumbold, British minister to Greece, has been instructed by Earl Roseberry, minister of foreign affairs, to join the other diplomats at Athens in a final strong remonstrance against the warlike attitude of Greece. This combined remonstrance is tantamount to an ultimatum, and if it be ignored by Greece the Posts of the various governments concerned, which are now in Greek waters, will act forthwith. All of the foreign Mediterranean squadrons are being reinforced with great haste.

Secretary Manning's Condition.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 3.—There has been no change in the condition of Secretary Manning during twenty-four hours. His physicians are still reticent about his actual condition, and will only say when interviewed that their patient is a little better or a little worse, or the same as when last reported. It is known, however, that the secretary is yet partially paralyzed and can barely move his arms. There is no danger, however, of an imminent change in his condition and his eldest son will return to Albany.

Military Assignments.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 3.—Orders were issued from the war department Friday making the following assignments of division commands: Maj. Gen. Schofield, division of Atlantic; Maj. Gen. Terry, division of Missouri; Maj. Gen. Howard, division of Pacific; Brig. Gen. Crook, relieved at his own request from command of the department of Arizona, and assigned to the department of the Platte; Brig. Gen. Miles, assigned to the department of Arizona.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes, that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Jewetts' Water Filters

Are the only perfect filters in the market proved by a test of many years. They have been improved for the last 25 years, so that they have now reached perfection. It is conceded by scientists and physicians that one of the chief causes of what is termed malaria, arises from impurities of drinking water. Out of forty-six wells in Brooklyn recently examined by a sanitary committee, only eight were found uncontaminated with sewerage or animal matter. We expend from $50 up for protection from lightning, for insurance, etc., while the danger from lightning is not one thousandth part of that from our well and cistern water. The investment of $5.00 more in a Jewett Filter will prove the best investment as a protection from disease, and also give us the purest of water. 100 families in Janesville are now using them. For sale only at

Wheelock's Crockery Store

WHEN DOES OLD AGE BEGIN?

When does old age begin? At forty-five, it is said, the amount of combustion which keeps the furnace of the human body in blast commences to decrease and diminishes until three-score years and ten, more or less, when the fires are drawn and the flickering flame dies out. That is the physiological way of looking at it. But some men are old before they are out of their teens, while others apparently never grow old, though they live to be centenarians. The poet's way of looking at it is the best:

"Call him not old whose visionary brain
Holds o'er the past its undivided reign.
For him in vain the envious seasons roll
Who bears eternal summer in his soul."

This at least seems to be the way in which David Littell, of Sumner, Ia., looks at life, for though now in his eightieth year he has taken a new lease on life and is apparently determined to hold on to it. Athlophoros did it for him and he acknowledges his debt to it in terms of enthusiasm. Mr. Littell tells his own story:

"I was past seventy-seven and had been afflicted with rheumatism three years and eight months. I had lost one-third of my weight and could not walk, but shuffled along with crutches. Sleep had deserted me, my nerves were all shattered, and there was no strength in my hands, wrists, knees or feet. I could not sit down or get up out of a chair without help, and oh! such pain, worse at night than in the day. There was neither sleep nor rest, and the outlook was painful in the extreme.

"But thanks be to God and Brother Inskip for sending me a paper containing a notice of the cures made by Athlophoros and thanks be to you for sending me a bottle. It appears to me the hand of God is in it all the way, and if you did not hear me shout why then I did not shout loud enough, that is all. The medicine arrived one Saturday night after I had gone to bed. In the morning my son prepared me a dose of two teaspoonfuls in milk. I took it and felt it at once all over. After that I took but one teaspoonful at a time until I had finished the bottle. How did it act? Why, like a charm. On Monday morning I rose, dressed, and walked out into the kitchen without crutches or cane and wished them all a happy New Year.

"My pain is all gone and I rest well. My son, seeing such a great change in me, wrote for ten bottles in order, as he says, to make a permanent cure of it. It is all more like a dream than reality. I have written to four of my friends who are afflicted with rheumatism about the great medicine and I shall write to others, and in this way try to pay the debt of gratitude.

"Some fourteen months ago," says A. Hayward, of Burlington, Ia., "I was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism. I tried a dozen different kinds of medicine said to cure rheumatism, but to no purpose. Finally, I procured a bottle of Athlophoros. After using the bottle it did me so much good that I bought another, but did not have to use more than a third of the second bottle before I was entirely cured. From that time up to the present I have never had anything like rheumatic pains, and I thank Athlophoros for the cure."

Thomas Methe, Bush's Block, Dubuque, Ia., whose wife was cured by Athlophoros of a terrible case of rheumatism, declares it was "nothing less than a miracle in my wife's case."

If you cannot get Athlophoros of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us, as directed. Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York.

A SURE ROAD TO HADES

STAKED OUT BY SAM JONES IN SHORT ORDER.

The Expenditure of Twenty Thousand Dollars Per Year for Living Does the Business for You—What to Do with Money—Spasmodic Religion.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Eight thousand people attended the meeting at Casino rink Friday evening. Mr. Jones chose these words for his text:

"There was a certain man in Cesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band. A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway."

The evangelist said: The first century of the Christian era produced some of the most remarkable characters of the world's history; and, after all, character is the immortal part of a man. Character is that which outlives the stars. Character is my passport into heaven or it will sink me into hell. Now, when I seek the basis of character I would'nt build on will, or on intelligence, or on conscience. I would base character on affections, for what I love and what I hate determine my character. If I love the good and hate the bad then I am godlike in character. If I love the bad and hate the good then I am satanic in my character. My reputation is what people say of me; but my character is what I really am. I've got reputation enough to run a dozen men, but, thank God, I'm running on character. [Applause.] There are lots of people who think I'm the veriest vagabond on top of earth. Now, do I look like one? [Laughter and applause.]

A voice—No.

Reputation is what people say of me and character is what I really am. Reputation is like a glove. You can take it off, tear it to pieces, and throw it away. And gloves are cheap now. [Laughter.] You tar character and it remains tarred. My character is in my own hands; but people can make your reputation suffer. Still, I don't object to it. Character! The immortal part of a man! The part of a man that is in our keeping and no one can touch it. Character is a precious jewel. A man who can't be bought is a true man, and a man who sows on a line. That's character. Now, Cornelius was a grand character, and I want to present to you the scriptural portraiture of him so that you can hang it up and look at it.

Chicago, with all of its reformatory powers, hasn't got a single man like Cornelius, and I don't think this city has a single woman like Cornelius' wife, although the Bible has nothing to say about her. [Laughter.] Cornelius was devout. This word devout covers all ground, and when God said Cornelius was devout, he meant that he was a thorough religious man. You hear people say that business is business and religion is religion, and that you can't mix 'em. Now, brethren, for the life of me I can't see how religion dissociates itself from anything a man does. Here you are singing "The Promised Land" and "The Sweet By and By." Brother, you get religion the way that man had it, and we commence singing "The Sweet Now and Now," and keep singing it until we get into glory. [Laughter.] I want enough heaven here so that when I really do get into heaven I will not notice the transition. [Laughter.] I don't want to step into heaven and look like a greenhorn there. [Great laughter and applause.] Why, a man ought to stick to his religious principles in business just the same as an engine backs to the track. Lah me! You say that a man can't do business on religious principles and make money. I declare, that fools half so but I believe he can. Trade religiously, walk religiously, vote religiously, pay your debts religiously if you can, but the Bible says owe no man anything. You must live religiously. There is a woman sits out there. You'll pay more this spring for a bonnet than you'll give to the poor in a year, and yet you are on the way to glory. [Laughter.] Now to drop back on this assertion. If you spend $20,000 a year for living, I don't care what church you belong to, you'll go to hell just as true as my name is Sam Jones. Now you mark that. That old sister over there is laying up treasure in heaven. She's ransacked her closets and found an old woman's frock which she gives to poor old Aunty Sallie. [Laughter.] Sister! wont you look nice in glory struttin' around in that old frock [loud laughter] and that's about all you've got laid up there—that old frock. It's scandalous.

Cornelius was a devout man, and feared God with all his house. He was a symmetrical fellow. How do we ruin our character? Here's a greedy old miser in God Almighty's church loaning his money at 20 per cent, and loaning it, too, to the dear church brethren. [Laughter.] Next to the meanest man in the world is the fellow who won't pay his debts; but the meanest man is the fellow who loans money at usury rates and tries to get a grip on your house and plantation. [Applause.] You ought to loan money religiously; but this loaning money is a hard business, anyway—it petrifies the feelings. Tell you what you do, if you have got too much money just scatter some of it among the brethren of the church and charge them neither principal nor interest. [Laughter.]

Live religiously. And right here I want to say that this big meetin' business is not the best thing in the world - this holding a revival once a year and having a fellow preaching a lot of sensational stuff. But that is the only kind that'll bring you out. [Laughter.] If I had advertised that I would preach like Brother Barrows I wouldn't have drawn 500 people a night. [Great laughter at the expense of the crestfallen dominie.] I want to see the day come when every father is the priest of his own home. Convert your children at home and then send them to church, where they will meet people like themselves. But I understand that the Presbyterians of the South Side have discontinued their evening meetings and are going to have but one service on Sunday. Don't you reckon that they'll make it monthly after awhile—[laughter]—and then in the end conclude to hold one big meeting every Christmas. [Renewed laughter.] No religion at home; no religion at church. Just go out on dress parade every Sunday. [Laughter.] Let us go home and take up family prayers to-night. Give alms to the people as did Cornelius and his house. Let us have genuine religion. Pray God to help you up on praying ground. What say you, brother?

Mr. Jones preached at Farwell hall at noon especially to commercial travelers, and there was such a crowd that the police had to be called to prevent a panic. The evangelist spoke of the knights of the sample case as angels of commerce and told them that a valise filled with bottled bourbon was not the sort of luggage the Lord approved of. He endeavored to impress his hearers with the great power for good they could exert if they set their minds to it, and made a strong appeal to them to use that power in the right way. He closed with the following words:

Brethren! If you see that your ways are not right then make a turn. Let us keep straight ahead. "But," you say, "I want time." A second and a half is all the time you want to turn round. Say, "I'll live and die clean if I don't sell another bill of goods." You've got no time to throw away. A few more days of debauchery and a few more nights of licentiousness will put some of you where you can't turn. But thank God you can turn to-day. It is a grand thing when a man walks up and gives himself to the right. God grant that every one of you will give yourself to a better, purer and nobler life. How many of you will start out on that line to-day?

About 500 drummers arose. "Well, God be praised, exclaimed the evangelist, "and may God bless the commercial travelers of Chicago and America, and their wives and children, too."

GOOD DAY FOR ALDERMEN.

That Is, They Were Numerous and Easy to Capture, in New York.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The authorities have been fishing for aldermen for some time past, and there seems to be quite a run of what they want just now. Ex-Alderman Kirk, who was taken in Thursday night sat up brooding over his troubles until he was taken before the district attorney in the morning, where he was followed later by Alderman Fullgraff, who just sauntered in followed closely by a detective, who had given him a hint that the district attorney wanted to see him. He was afterward taken before the grand jury. After that a detective made his appearance in company with ex-Alderman Finck, and at about 1 p. m. ex-Alderman Pearson was arrested. Whatever may be the situation of the others Pearson and Kirk were undoubtedly prisoners for they were both released on bail during the day—Pearson on $25,000 and Kirk on $20,000. The charges are bribery in connection with the Broadway railway franchise.

It was officially announced in the afternoon that Alderman Waite had turned states evidence, and it was upon this testimony before the grand jury that the arrests of Kirk and Pearson were made. After he had finished his testimony before the grand jury Waite was taken to police headquarters. When asked if Waite had any counsel Assistant District Attorney Nicoll said: "I am his counsel. He needs none other."

Alderman Fullgraff is technically under arrest and was before the senate investigating committee in the afternoon. He said he was sorry he had been an alderman, as press and people seemed quite willing to smirch a man's character. He had voted for the Broadway franchise bill from perfectly honest principles, as many other aldermen, he was sure had done. He denied ever having received anything for his vote, and said if he had voted for a measure which he believed to be right and was not promised anything and some one sent him a bond, he thought he would take it.

AN IOWA BOY "PREACHER,"

Whose Friends Are So "Practical" That He Tries to Shuffle Via Laudanum.

NEW YORK, April 3.—W. C. Ackerman, who calls himself the boy preacher of Iowa, tried to commit suicide at the Grand Union hotel Thursday by swallowing laudanum. He was insensible when found by the porter Friday morning, but was resuscitated. He had written letters to his father at Ackley, Iowa, and left them on a table in the room. They indicate that he was disappointed in love, very poor and partly demented. From conversation with the young man after his recovery it would seem that his practical relatives in Iowa had nipped his oratorical ambition in the bud by refusing to support him in idleness, and that he had started for New Hampshire hoping to be more leniently treated by relatives there. His funds failed him and he determined to end his woes in oblivion.

AMERICAN HOME RULE.

English Editors Have a Poor Idea of Its Scope—A Scotch Revolt.

LONDON, April 3.—The revolt of the Scotch Liberals against Mr. Gladstone is generally regarded as a very serious matter. The extent of the defection is greater than was at first supposed, and many votes upon which the premier implicitly relied to sustain his Irish policy will, it is now known, be cast against him.

The Pall Mall Gazette, in the adoption of Mr. Chamberlain's formula of "American home rule," including the power of the imperial parliament to veto all measures of the statutory parliament at Dublin, betrays a curious notion of the American form of government by assuming that legislation upon local matters in the various state legislatures is subject to the vote of the federal congress.

Proceedings in the House.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 3.—A memorial from Knights of Labor of Philadelphia protesting against the passage of the free ship bill was presented in the house Friday. The agricultural appropriation bill was introduced, and immediately thereafter the house went into committee on O'Neill's arbitration bill, which was debated the remainder of the day and considered by sections up to and including the fourth section without amendment except immaterial ones in the first section. The house then took recess until 7:30 p. m., and upon reassembling considered and passed thirty-five pension bills, and then adjourned.

The Cause of Miller Bros.' Failure.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 1. — Morris Ranger and his Attorney Blumenthal of New York city arrived here Friday night and will take steps to set aside the assignment of Miller Bros. the big dry goods house that failed on the 29th. Ranger represents claims against the firm on account of cotton speculation amounting to $120,000 and Mr. Conrad Miller, senior partner, admits that the losses of the firm in cotton will amount to $250,000.

Look Out for This Note!

WASHINGTON CITY, April 3.—A $5 counterfeit brown-back national bank note has been discovered, purporting to be an issue of the Central National Bank of Norwalk, Conn., and giving the charter number of the bank as 401. This bank has never issued a note of the series of 1882, and its charter number is 2,342.

Belgian Rioters Attempting to Escape.

BERLIN, April 3.—Large numbers of the Belgian rioters have attempted to escape into Germany, but the German troops on the Belgian frontier have turned them back and threatened to shoot them if they crossed the boundary.

And So on Ad Infinitum.

CINCINNATI, April 3.—Against all expectation, the senatorial investigation may yet continue some time. The Republicans are introducing rebuttal evidence, which the Democrats in turn desire to rebut.

Voted a Big Appropriation.

BERLIN, April 3.—The Prussian unterhaus has voted 100,000,000 marks for the purpose of establishing German colonists in Western Prussia and Posen.

Indian Claims Badly "Scaled."

WASHINGTON CITY, April 3.—The secretary of the interior in compliance with the law has sent to the house a list of Indian depredation claims, aggregating $3,015,-507.70, together with the paper showing the action of the department in each case. Of this amount only $50,255.58 is allowed by the secretary's report, comprising twenty-seven claims: the remainder of the claims being barred by the statutes of limitation.

Hung by the Sheriff.

LEXINGTON, Mo., April 3.—Jeff Wilson, colored, was hanged by the Sheriff Friday for the murder of Jane Sanford, his mulatto mistress, on July 31, 1884. He spent half an hour on the gallows singing hymns, and declared he would soon be with God. The drop fell at 1:10 p. m., and after a short struggle he was pronounced dead. Five thousand people witnessed the hanging.

The Transcontinental Rate-War.

NEW YORK, April 3.—A still further cut has been made in the rates between the Missouri river and San Francisco. Prices Friday were, via the Pennsylvania road to Kansas City or Omaha, $29.50; from Omaha and Kansas City to San Francisco, $30; upon which a rebate of $25 is allowed upon arriving at San Francisco.

A Free Will and Free Way.

CONCORD, N. H., April 3.—Rev. William Hammond, of the Free Will Baptist church, of Franklin, decamped Thursday morning with $3,000 belonging to a newly-wedded bride. He was arrested in a Boston bank as he was cashing the check.

Death of Judge Baxter.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 3.—Judge John Baxter of the United States circuit court, a resident of Cincinnati, died at Hot Springs Friday. He had long been a resident of Tennessee and had only recently gone to Hot Springs for his health.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill. says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

A Little Sufferer

Cleansed, Purified and Beautified by the Cuticura Remedies.

It affords me great pleasure to give you this report of the cure of our little grandchild by your Cuticura Remedies. When six months old his left hand began to swell and had every appearance of a large boil. We poulticed it, but all to no purpose. About five months after it became a running sore. Soon other sores formed. He then had two of them on each hand and as his blood became more and more impure it took less time for them to break out. A sore came on the chin, beneath the under lip, which was very offensive. His head was one solid scab, discharging a great deal. This was his condition at twenty two months old, when I undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was a little more than a year old, of consumption (scrofula of course). He could walk a little, but could not get up if he fell down, and could not move when in bed, having no use of his hands. I immediately commenced with the Cuticura Remedies, using the Cuticura and Cuticura Soap freely, and when he had taken one bottle of the Cuticura Resolvent, his head was completely cured, and he was improved in every way. We were very much encouraged, and continued the use of the Remedies for a year and a half. One sore after another healed, a bony matter forming in each one of these five deep ones just before healing, which would finally grow loose and were taken out; then they would heal rapidly. One of these ugly bone formations I preserved. After taking a dozen and a half bottles he was completely cured, and is now, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child. The scars on his hands must always remain; his hands are strong though we once feared he would never be able to use them. All that physicians did for him did him no good. All who saw the child before using the Cuticura Remedies and see the child now, consider it a wonderful cure. If the above facts are of any use to you, you are at liberty to use them. MRS. E. S. DRIGGS,

May 9, 1885. 612 E. Clay St, Bloomington, Ill.

The child was really in a worse condition than he appeared to his grandmother, who, being with him every day, became accustomed to the disease. MAGGIE HOPPING.

Cuticura Remedies are sold everywhere. Price: CUTICURA, 50 cents; RESOLVENT, $1.00; SOAP, 25 cents. Prepared by the Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston. Mass.

Catharral Dangers.

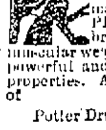

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing, to feel that the system does not through its veins and arteries suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical and never-failing.

Sanford's Radical Cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent, and one Improved Inhaler, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.00.

A Novel Feature in Investments

The whole country, after having undergone a period of depression is now asking itself, what business has least been affected and uninjured?

Such a business, industry or corporation that can make a better showing now than before the crisis, attracts the attention of capital, merits the confidence of investors, and is being eagerly sought for.

There is such a business, and it has heretofore been monopolized by English and Scotch capital until some three hundred millions have been invested in the Ranche and Cattle business of this great country.

Foremost amongst the strongest, richest and most successful American Companies stand the United States Land and Investment Company, 145 Broadway, New York, which is now offering $500,000. First Mortgage six per cent 10-year bonds, for subscription at 90 cash, or at par, upon a novel installment feature which appeals to the farmer as well as the banker, the clerk and mechanic as well as the millionaire, and to all who desire to invest their savings at better rates of interest than any bank will allow.

This company issues certificates of indebtedness in one and five dollars, each representing an installment, and when the investor has purchased $50 of these certificates he becomes entitled to a $100 gold bond, First Mortgage, bearing 6 per cent interest, which he can obtain upon presenting his certificates or forwarding them by letter to the company's office, at 145 Broadway, N. Y.

The remaining $50 due on the bond being payable to the company in monthly installments not exceeding $5.

The bond commences to draw interest on delivery the same as if fully paid. In addition to which the company gives as a bonus, free, one fully paid up share of stock of the value of $25.

Those desiring to buy their bonds outright for cash can do so at 10 per cent discount in $100, $500 or $1,000 bonds and receive one, five or ten shares of stock free. The bonds are secured by property owned absolutely by the company, estimated to be worth $3,000,000, and this money received from sale of bonds will be invested in cattle, the income from which it is estimated will yield 30 per cent upon the stock after paying 6 per cent on the bonds.

Applications are being forwarded in great numbers daily, and all those who desire to subscribe should send at once for Prospectuses and full information to the United States Land and Investment Company, 145 Broadway, New York.—The N. Y. Financier.

FOR COUGHS, CROUP — AND — CONSUMPTION USE

TAYLOR'S CHEROKEE REMEDY

OF SWEET GUM AND MULLEIN.

The sweet gum, as gathered from a tree of the same name, growing along the small streams in the Southern States, contains a stimulating expectorant principle that loosens the phlegm producing the early morning cough, and stimulates the child to throw off the false membrane in croup and whooping-cough. When combined with the healing mucilaginous principle in the mullein plant of the old fields, presents in TAYLOR'S CHEROKEE REMEDY OF SWEET GUM AND MULLEIN the finest known remedy for Coughs, Croup, Whooping-cough and Consumption; and so palatable, any child is pleased to take it. Ask your druggist for it. Price, 25c. and $1. Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga.

Brieflets.

—Polo to-night.

—"Spot Cash" at the opera house this evening.

—Grand Army dance at post hall this evening.

—The carding and spinning rooms of the upper cotton mill will commence work Monday morning.

—The Recorder, of this morning, speaking of the candidates for alderman in the several wards, says:

—You can get more fun for 25 cents at the polo game to-night, than you ever had at a theatre for 75 cents in your life.

—C. E. Moseley is reported as being considerably better to-day and it is hoped that before long he will be able to venture out doors.

—The Good Templars will give a literary entertainment and paper cap social at their hall Wednesday evening, April 6th. Admission 10 cents. The public is cordially invited.

—Michael Mulcairns, who is now awaiting trial on a charge of assaulting Mrs. Katie Sennett, now languishes in durance vile, his bondsmen having given him up this afternoon.

—Thos. Judd, the republican candidate for school commissioner in the fourth ward, is the right man in the right place, and the good people of that ward will be ably represented should Mr. Judd be elected.

—The democrats will play a bluff game from now until election. In this way there will be no comparison of capacity or fitness of candidates; they go in to the election on the one principle—"Anything to beat Grant."

—This afternoon Justice Wickham gave a judgment for $153 to the plaintiff in the case of Seskey against Paul. Fethers, Jeffris & Smith appeared for the plaintiff and Dunwiddie & Golden for the defendant.

—Our candidates for aldermen "are not tied up to electric lights or crazy upon water works," yet they are, as a general rule, in favor of improving our city, and in doing so will see that the rights of the people are protected in every way.

"Moreover, they do not individually look to somebody else to tell them how to think or vote. They are not tied up to electric light or crazy upon water works".

Of course not; but the "power behind the throne" is always present, and they will vote according to bidding.

—The new Janesville rusher, Buchanan, made a decided hit with the audience last night. He is a very rapid skater and in rushing for the ball from the end of the rink to the middle of the floor, he distanced the Muncie rusher every time. The game to-night will be a rattler and the Janesvilles intend to win it.

—We learn from good authority that the manner in which the Irish voters of the fourth ward were treated at the caucus last evening, causes them to feel that the democracy have but little use for them. It is very evident that the intelligent Irish American citizen is able to distinguish between the merits of the two political parties and will not be slow to appreciate the honesty of the republican party.

—The republican candidates for aldermen in the several wards are all men of first class ability, wide awake, the class of men who take an interest in the general welfare of the city, and as such they can be trusted to conduct the various interests of the city. They are the class of men the people want to control the city at this time, as they have the capacity to do business. Can the democrats say as much, in truth, of their candidates.

—To-morrow Rev. Dr. Conover, of Trinity church, delivers the first of a series of sermons on "Men and Church Attendance" in which he will consider the alleged reasons for which men so largely absentee themselves from church services. The other two sermons of the series will be delivered on successive Sunday mornings. If the men do not hear these sermons, their wives and sisters will probably tell them what is said.

—This morning the train from Brodhead brought to this city the remains of the late R. W. Horn, father of Mr. R. L. Horn, of this city. From the depot the body was taken at once to Oak Hill cemetery, where short services were held. Quite a number of friends accompanied the funeral party to the cemetery, and listened with bowed heads to the impressive remarks. The pall bearers were A. F. Hall, Volney Atwood, Hiram Noyes Col. W. B. Britton, F. Dano and H. Boyce.

—Our representatives may not be statesmen, but they are the enemies of rings and monopolies without exception. Moreover, they do not individually look to somebody else to tell them how to think or vote.—Recorder.

Pray tell us, Mr. Recorder, who acts as prompter for the aldermen holding over in the fourth ward? and who is it that will be the "power behind the throne," should the democratic candidates be elected aldermen? While you are talking of rings, please tell us of this, that the intelligent voters of the city may be posted.

—While the democrats are circulating the false report that the republicans are quietly at work to gain control of the board of education in order to secure the return of Prof. Burton as city superintendent, they fail to tell us what motive the "independent" candidate has at this time, in again forcing himself upon the people, if not to secure the appointment of a "friend" to that position. Mr. C. L. Valentine has no scheme on foot; he has been a member of the board, and as such he never failed to meet all issues and demands to the satisfaction of all interested in the welfare of our schools. Vote for C. L. Valentine.

—Mr. Pat. Conners, an influential Irish-American of the fourth ward, complains bitterly of the manner in which the ward caucus was conducted last evening, and says that the democracy of his ward seem to have no use for the Conners family. He declares himself in favor of the republican nominees, and proposes to support them at the polls. Mr. Conners' example is being imitated more and more every year by the thoughtful and intelligent element of Irish Americans, who are learning by observation and experience that the professed friendship of the democracy is the flimsiest kind of a pretext for capturing votes, and at the best is only surface deep. The Gazette would respectfully suggest in this connection that what the fifth ward needs in the pending election is a good independent candidate for both alderman and supervisor.

—This morning at half past two Walter Turner, a young man well known in this city, breathed his last after an illness of one week. A short time ago he started for Missouri with his cousin, Ansel Dickenson, to look up a location for a lumber yard, and when he reached Kansas City on his way home he took a severe cold. This developed into diphtheria, so that when he reached Janesville last Saturday, he was in a critical state. His death, however, came unexpectedly and was the result of paralysis of the heart, something seen quite frequently in severe cases of diphtheria. Mr. Turner was very popular among his associates and was esteemed by all for his many sterling qualities. The death will be a severe blow to his mother and she will receive the heartiest sympathy from every one, although no one can realize the great sorrow but those who themselves have been made to endure it. The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock from the home of Mrs. Turner in the second ward and the interment will be in the Mount Zion cemetery.

Personal.

—Mr. C. W. Kidder, late of the Van Amburg combination, is in the city and will travel this season as the general advertising agent of the Burr Robbins shows. Mr. Kidder has had thirty years' experience in the show business and will be a valuable aid to Mr. Robbins this season.

—Mr. F. L. Hayden, who has been connected with the Chronicle since the first issue, has accepted a position on the Copper Herald, located at Hancock, Michigan. Mr. Hayden's many friends will regret to learn of his determination to leave the city, but will rejoice in his prosperity. Since his residence among us he has established a reputation as a bright, intelligent writer of more than ordinary ability; in his new field of labor he will have an opportunity to develope a new daily paper, the first issue of which will appear about the middle of April; the paper will circulate throughout the copper district. The Copper Herald is fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Hayden.

The Nominees.

We take pride in calling attention to the nominations made by the republican city convention this afternoon—all are representative men of our beautiful city, who possess standing and capacity to fill the positions to which they have been named. Especially is this true of the several gentlemen named as water commissioners. The interests of the city are perfectly safe in the hands of such men, and the people will see that each one is elected.

"A Quiet Day" in Trinity Parish.

What has come to be known as "A Quiet Day," was observed in Trinity church Thursday. The services were for the women of the parish. They began at 10 a. m., and closed at 4:30 p. m., with an intermission between 1 and 2 p. m. when a light lunch was served in the chapel. A number of ladies remained through all the services, and others came and went as other duties permitted. Prof. Riley, of Nashotah, conducted the "Quiet Day." There was a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10 a. m. At intervals (the intermediate time being filled with hymns, prayer and silent meditation), Prof. Riley delivered addresses on "The Significance and Value of the Day as a Work of Spiritual Revival"; on "Woman in the Home"; "Woman in Society"; "Woman in the Church"; and "The Personal Religious Life." These discussions were able, practical and helpful, and some of them produced a marked effect upon the listeners. About sixty ladies in all were present, and they will long remember the blessing of the day of retirement and silence. The services closed with evening prayer at four p. m.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 7 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with northwest wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 35 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with north wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 30 and 50 degrees above zero.

To the Republican Electors of the Fourth Ward.

I sincerely thank the republicans of the fourth ward for their kindness in nominating me as their candidate for alderman, at the same time, owing to business engagements, it is impossible for me to accept and I therefore decline to be a candidate. I respectfully request my friends to vote for Mr. David Jeffris for alderman in the fourth ward, believing that he will serve the people well. Respectfully,

HERMAN LEMPKE.

Janesville, April 3d, 1886.

To the Electors of the Fourth Ward

Mr. Herman Lempke, the republican nominee for alderman of the fourth ward declines to serve. Mr. David Jeffris has consented to be a candidate. Mr. Jeffris should command the solid support of the electors of the ward.

BY ORDER FOURTH WARD COMMITTEE.

Declines the Nomination.

Appreciating the thoughtful courtesy of my third ward friends in conferring the honor of a nomination to represent them in the board of supervisors, and thanking them for the same, I would respectfully decline to be a candidate.

WM. B. CONRAD.

Republicans, Attention!

The various ward committees and all the republican candidates are requested to meet this evening at 8 o'clock sharp at the office of Sale & Pierce.

ORDER CITY COMMITTEE.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

Giving the Time and Places Where Divine Services Will Be Held on Sunday.

Why do the heathen rage, and the people rage and imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands assunder, and cast away their cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh; the Lord shall have them in derision. Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure. Yet have I set my King upon my holy hill of Zion. I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. Be wise now therefore, O, ye kings; be instructed, ye judges of the earth. Serve the Lord with fear and rejoice with trembling. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

THE MEN FROM MUNCIE.

Come Out Ahead in the Polo Game. Score 3 to 2.

The game last night was a good example of what persistence will accomplish. When the second goal was made it looked as though the visitors would be shut out without a goal, but they gained strength steadily after that, and their hard play enabled them to win. In starting the game the ball was rushed for, Buchanan winning. The Muncies relied almost entirely upon passing and hitting none except Kirk, trying to carry the ball; while Beeson and Buchanan gained their points mostly by speed and dodging abilities. After a little over two minutes of rather one-sided work, the ball was carried to the visitors' end, and during the scrimmage, Beeson, who seemed to be everywhere at once, found an opportunity to make a goal.

The second rush was also won by Buchanan, who showed himself all through the game to be a wonderful player. The visitors appeared to be tiring out and even Schaefer, the hardest hitter in the Indiana league, was not doing his usual work. A number of excellent stops were made by Freeman and Mong, the Muncie goal men, but the attacks of Beeson and Buchanan were too persistent and the ball was finally caged by a skillful stroke of the latter player. Time 7:05.

The fight in the third goal was mostly on the open floor but the ball was little by little pushed toward the Riverside end. The cage was left almost unguarded during a skirmish along the rail and the ball being passed to Schafer who was standing a short distance down the floor he tossed it over the board. Time 5:47. Schafer now began to show that he deserved his reputation as a hard hitter and Brown and Ridgely were kept uncomfortably busy. They made some splendid stops but their opponents were now on their mettle and the ball was literally forced into the net. Time 10:40.

In the last goal the tables were turned, though the home team worked hard the visitors developed a strength that astonished every one. After about three minutes of play, Buchanan's skate came off and while he was standing still, trying to call the attention of the referee Schafer skated across the floor without any opposition and caged the ball. The summary of the game is as follows:

MUNCIES.		JANESVILLES.
Schafer	Rushers.	Buchanan
Kirk		Beeson
Stitt		Sperry
Beuher	Half Back	Smith
Freeman	Cover Goal	Ridgley
Mong	Goal	Brown

Referee—Al. Schaller.
Playing time—29:03.

Grading Streets.

To the Editor.

This morning's Recorder in speaking of the democratic city nominations says,

"Of course we expect our streets to be properly graded in the third ward up hill and down hill at public expense."

This is an unwarranted and dastardly thing at the democratic candidate for alderman in the third ward, but when we consider the source from which it emanates it can but benefit him. It is a well known fact that that Alderman Rooney did grade Racine streets from Main street to the city limits, using the ward fund for that purpose. But it was a work that needed to be done, and as the property owners upon Racine street and time and again refused to grade at their own expense, as the city charter says that such work must be done, the ward fund and to be used for that purpose. It is understood that the work only cost $1,500, leaving some $300 to do the work on the other streets of the ward and no one but a "crank" would object to the expenditure. The days of doing a years work in the third ward on $600 to $800 are over, and if we had more such public spirited aldermen as Mr. Rooney the city would be far more prosperous. Mr. Rooney's home is on Racine street.

THIRD WARD DEMOCRAT.

Now or Never.

Ward candidates on both sides are now before us, and we most sincerely commend the democratic nominees without exception, as careful custodians of both public and private business. Opposed to these gentlemen we have a set of "fine workers" who know about as much of city business as a grasshopper knows about holy scriptures.—Recorder.

The above effusion is a fair index of the character of the organ from which it eminates, and reflects the sentiment of the party behind it. If the Recorder had been candid enough to say that the democratic party contained an element capable of becoming "custodians of both public and private business," and who would fill places of trust with credit to themselves and honor to the city, the statement would be truthful beyond question. Why this class of men are not brought forward in the ward democratic caucuses we leave for the organ of the party to explain.

The disagreeable operation of forcing liquids into the head, and the use of exciting snuffs, are being superceded by Ely's Cream Balm, a cure for Catarrh, Colds in the Head and Hay Fever. It is a safe and pleasant remedy being easily applied with the finger. It is curing cases which have defied the doctors. Price 50c.

I have myself used Ely's Cream Balm (being afflicted with catarrh) with satisfactory results, and recommend it to all suffering with this terrible disease. It is giving my trade universal satisfaction.—L. F. Gackenheimer, Druggist, Van Wert, O.

Sennet on the Road.

M. B. Curtis and company appeared at Rockford on Wednesday evening. The Gazette of Thursday evening speaks of the performance thus:

"There was a fair audience at the opera house last evening to see M. B. Curtis in Spot Cash. The play began promptly at eight o'clock, and was hurried through so that the company could leave by the 10:40 p. m. train on the C. M. & St. P. railroad. The play was much enjoyed by the audience, and Mr. Curtis was called before the curtain at the end of the second act.

There were many of the spectators who thought that the play was shortened, as three characters were on the programme who did not appear during the rendition of the comedy. It seems that the cast of the play left by the manager, Mr. Wing, was one used when the play was first presented. Since then these three characters have been eliminated. This has been an improvement, and the company were much vexed over the mistake made by Mr. Wing.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis as Sam'l Plastrick and Celeste were the main figures of the comedy, and they did the work in their usual excellent way. "Spot Cash" is fully as good as Sam'l of Posen, and has more fun in it than the latter. Miss Carrie Granville, as Marie, Celeste's maid, is a graceful actress and will become a good soubrette.

The Kindergarten.

The spring work in the kindergarten will commence on Monday next. The work this season is made very interesting for the little people. Each days' work is thoughtfully planned, and it is the earnest hope of the workers in the Kindergarten, that the seed, now sown in the spring time may reap a bountiful harvest.

The work of the connecting class will also begin on Monday, so that the older children may receive instruction in reading. All visitors in the Kindergarten are cordially welcomed. It is very encouraging to the children and teachers to feel that their work is appreciated by so many kind friends. Mothers who have children in this happy and developing atmosphere only wonder why more interest is not taken in this new education.
